APRIL THURSDAY 13 (103-262) 1922

dark and cloudy and quite cool I split wood all day. I finished up tonight. Ossie down for a while This afternoon. went to bed early very tired tonight

Good Friday (Dominion) FRIDAY 14 (104-261)

Lovely day I cleaned out the brush from behind the House and wood shed in the forenoon and I piled the lumber in the afternoon I worked at it untill late tonight to finish it. went to bed early very tired

APRIL SATURDAY 15 (105-260) 1922

rainy day I killed the calf in the forenoon and painted the Fore carriage for disc Harrow and riged up the Moore Cream Seaperator in the afternoon Mrs Cockrill Gerald Ida. and Eliza Hiscock came up tonight Gerald and I sat over in Office visiting untill very late Eliza stayed all night

Easter Sunday SUNDAY 16 (106-259)

Lovely day Elza Hiscock here around home in the forenoon. I went for a walk in the afternoon and went up to Joe Gamford's for a while. I went for a walk after supper and went up to Will Monaghans and spent the evening