

Saturday, December 21 19

356 DAYS PAST

Friday

10 TO COME

A Practical Precaution.

In taking a swab of suspected patches in the throat, an interval of six hours should be allowed to elapse after making any antiseptic application, as otherwise the bacteriological examination and culture may be retarded and interfered with. When patches are discovered on the first visit, the swab should be used before instituting any treatment whatever.—Med. World.

Weather

Temp.

a little warmer
Maudie went to school
I went down to Bayles
& he cut me a Christmas tree. We made an cake &
Pudding, & papered
the paritory

Welles