

The mud the cart would get out to the school rained so hard we could not go although my horse after tea we began to get rid of it but it started up again and we was for the all-weather. My horse to my old and Dick Mrs. Woodson (Chefarit) the game to rain that

Tuesday September 5th Dick got up extra early this morning and struck out for school in good time so as to get a good seat. Daddy was back to plow and I sawed all the wood left in the pile and then went back about nine o'clock to where Dad was with a hand spike to get that big stone out Daddy helped me and we rolled it down into the brush.
I had a long plowing lesson and came up about eleven and got some potatoes and then went down town and got some meat & groceries. I got home about noon. Dick got home at noon and did not go back. This afternoon plowed till five o'clock and is now nearly done. I did some cleaning up around the stable and chores. Dick was down for the mail and found out from Mrs. Woodson (Chefarit) the game to rain that

Driven from home from they are staying at Jim McTomin.
Dick went down with them to get some school books from Gustaf. Daddy & I expect to go to the Toronto exhibition to no will be to get up extra early. Hubby said he would come over & do chores before this morning but will freeze you this aft.

Wednesday September 6th I cleaned up and worked around the stable till ten o'clock this morning and then went back to the field with Dad.
The flies were very bad and the horses about crazy. He finished the plowing soon after I got there and then hooked on the harrows and I harrowed till noon. After dinner Daddy took Joe and Ginger down and got 8 yds disc and I lay around till he got back and then we took both teams out and he disped and I harrowed all the after noon. The soles of my feet got pretty tired and poor Ginger got pretty disgusted but we got a nice bit done. I quit a little after five and went up and put the horses bed while Dick went and got the cows. We milked before tea. Mrs. Ross and Bob were here for tea and Daddy has just