

[pg 10b]

1889 2<sup>mo</sup> 1st Our Quarterly began not very large but good, No strangers not many friends called on us, knowing our situation Justice Robinson took dinner with us one day, _ Carrie was with us and her three little fatherless boys. _

---

_6th Three years ago To day [sic] Vincent Bowerman Died aged 93 years. Susan Dorland died about seven in the evening Aged 78, 1889

---

3<sup>mo</sup> 2nd My Brother John died aged 86 years buried in Bloomfield, by the side of Aunt Bathsheba, _ _ _

_3rd I was taken sick & kept my bed for six weeks, with a bad cold, _ Elizabeth & Rachel up to see me, _ _ _

---

4<sup>mo</sup> 11 Mary Waring came down for a visit went back into Huntingdon, _ _ _

---

[pg 11a]

1889 4<sup>mo</sup> 28th

Levis [sic] Birth day [sic] 57 years old. Spent the day over to the Lott all alone, makeing [sic] his family feel very uneasy. _

---

5<sup>mo</sup> 1_

In the year 1819, My sister Mary carried our Queen Victoria about the room, at the George Inn (Hotel) in [Flminster?] Somersetshire Old England. _ DB Aged 84 years,

---

7 Lydias [sic] Birth day [sic] 50, born in 1838,