

January, 1926.

29 Friday. Cold. Walter went over to Noah's and did his chores again this morning also tonight. Aubrey was shovelling snow this morning and went to Elmira this afternoon. He brought Vernon and Miller's girls home with him. Tonight Aubrey and Walter, Vernon and Ella went to the Literary at August Webers. We hitched up Grace and Donald in the sleigh and took a load over.

30 Saturday. Mild. Vernon and Aubrey worked in the bush this p.m.

31 Sunday. Raw east wind blowing. We drove to church & School this morning with Enoch's in the big sleigh. Our company today - Mr. & Mrs. Lincoln Weaver, Willard Mildred Doris and Howard, Mr. & Mrs. Edmund Schwindt, Ruth, Ruby, Willard Vernon, Kenneth and Maurice.
