

December, 1929.

24 Tuesday. Changeable weather. Walter took a load of chopping to Floradale this afternoon.

25 Wednesday. Christmas Day. Milder, dreary with light snowfalls. Vernon & Ella drove to Grandpa Krauter's in the cutter today and had their Christmas dinner there. It took them three hours to go down and three to come home. Willard Weaver came home with them.

Tonight we all went to the Woolwind church entertainment.

26 Thursday. Foggy & raw. Walter went to the school meeting this morning. We had Christmas dinner here today and the following guests - Mr. & Mrs. Ezra Maurer, Laura & Norman Miller, Irwin, Eva & Annie Schneider and Emerson Stange.

Bow-in Christmas eve, to Mr. & Mrs. Wilfrid Underwood, Bridgport, a daughter - Carol Geraldine.
