

June, 1927.

24 Friday. Fair. The men prepared the ground and sowed the turnips today. Edna brought Aunt Barbara (Mrs. Fitter, of Alliance, Alberta) down here this p.m.

25 Saturday. Sultry. Thunderstorms and rain. Cooler tonight. The men sowed some of the flax. The Union S. S. picnic was postponed on account of the rain. We took Aunt Barbara down to Grandpa's tonight. Walter went to Creekbank tonight.

26 Sunday. Fine, cool day. We went to church & S. School this morning and went to Allen Wagner's for dinner and to Lincoln Weaver's for tea.

27 Monday. Lovely day. The men finished sowing the flax and were plowing buckwheat ground. Ella did her washing and picked a few berries in Schwandt's bush this afternoon. Callers were - Norman Miller, Jr., Stange and Wesley Miller. Vernon went over to Peisto's tonight to get the buckwheat and Walter went to Creekbank.
