January WEDNESDAY 15 1919

fine but cold over to store in the forenoon. I sold out my interest in the Store to Jim Simpson for $1400 he is to have Bank account and Book account and he pay all debts and give me the House & Lot 5 and I am to keep the Office there as long as I pay Luella Kenny her wages and I am to have all moneys made out of the Post Office beginning on Jan. 1st. Henry Dean and Artie Rowthee brought up the Organ and some of Mothers and Clifford stuff in the afternoon. They took Cliffords Cutter home with them over to Office in the evening
