

- 11 On our way to Birdie's we called at Mrs. A. J. Grant's home to pay our respects to her remains she died on Tuesday.
- 12 Mrs Grant was buried today.
- 13 I went to Cornwall with John P. McL and had a visit at Farguhars
- 14 A small roast from Martintown butcher 3 1/2 lbs 28^{cts} 4 loaves 24
- 15 Came home today did not go to church Began to rain in the evening
- 16 Rained all day, cleared up in evening
- 17 To pan bread 24. Salve for cows udder
- 18 Rain today, John Christie and wife here to tea. They are looking for a place for Katie and Hughie to board 1 lb tea
- 19 Dull day Flora MacLennan Kynon and a Mrs Davison, daughter of R. C. MacLennan School teacher of Martintown long ago, came here to dinner. To bacon 23 cts
- 20 1 bottle Electric oil 25 pan bread 24 a bottle of liniment ^{from} D. Demoula for our cows udder which is badly swelled He was passing and Jimmie called him to see the cow. He ordered hot water baths, and to rub in the liniment - Mrs. D. Roy, Katie and Jean Calda here to tea
- 21 Fine cool day Mundy went to Cornwall got apples from Far - and an iron for clothes line. To over three lbs steak charged at Sandys To 3 loaves 18 - Sugar 25 starch 10 cream tartar 10 - 1/2 new tea 15
- 22 Fine day. J. Birdie and J. F. were down To Sunday off 20^{cts}
- 23 Another fine day, a shower last night To 4 loaves 24 ~~To 4 loaves 24~~

It was on the 24 that A. M. L. was cutting the oats

52
49
75
25
25
49
75

- 24. Very fine day, John Lavolette Pan 2.50 for sent A M L day ^{and cutters around fence} ~~storking~~ oats 1.25
- 25 2 1/2 lbs steak from Bickstead 25 pan bread 25^{sent for D. F.} 50
A M Donald storking oats 1.25
- 26 Rain, Jimmie Mc Bain began to cut our oats ~~yesterday~~ on Tuesday 24th and yesterday Got a milk kettle from Jerry Sullivan cost 90 90
- 27 2 lbs of butter 54^{cts} pan bread 24. chivade lime 5 85
- 28 Right back 5: pan bread 24. Jimmie went to Alexandria 19
- 29 Rained last night and drizzling this morning James Cottanach preached in morning and evening and his wife sang a solo in morning My off 5^{cts} 3 lbs steak from Sandy yesterday
- 30 Fine day Jimmie put in three loads of oats had Oliver Colette helping. The steam thrasher came this evening and was on our end of Wellington St to go in the morning to Mr Govins
- 31 Dull today To 4 loaves 24. Jimmie was alone in forenoon and had to pitch and drive and make the load, he put in two loads and took home a jag at noon. In afternoon he got A. M. L. They were not 44 hour, when it began to rain, and rained all afternoon and now 8 P. M. still raining.

Word is out that Dr. Edward Cook has discovered the North Pole. On the of April 1908

F. D. McLENNAN COLL. B-5
DIARIES - CHRISTINA McLENNAN 1 Jan 1906 - 1915 - 7903 -