

February, 1929.

21 Thursday. Not as cold as yesterday. Snowed this afternoon.

Walter butchered 2 pigs here today one for Llewellyn Trask and the other one for Percy Treleaven. Ezra helped this forenoon and was here for dinner. Other callers - Irvin Schneider and Sam Korst.

22 Friday. Cold and clear. We dressed 5 fat roasters this morning and Walter went to Elmira this afternoon. Harvey and Lorne Reist were here tonight and we played crokinole.

23 Saturday. Cold and somewhat stormy. Walter and Elmo King went to Drayton this afternoon. Walter Adler spent the evening here and we played crokinole.

24 Sunday. Raw and cold. We went to church and Sunday school this morning and visited Wesley Miller's today.
