

November, 1925.

7 Saturday. Drizzly wet day.
Heavy rainfall tonight. Joe threshed till about 2 o'clock this afternoon. Annie Bridges helped Ella today.

8 Sunday. Cold. Snowflurries.
We went to Woolwich church & S. F. this morning and to Lincoln Weaver's for dinner and supper.

9 Monday. Thanksgiving Day.
Cold. Snowflurries. Our company
today - Mr. & Mrs. Colson Jefferson, Ray and Lois and Mr. & Mrs. Ezra Maurer.

10 Tuesday. Fair and somewhat milder.
The men brought in 1 load of frozen turnips this morning. This p.m. Walter took a load of wood to Alma and Aubrey was topping turnips.

11 Wednesday. Fine mild day.
Enoch and Irvin Bridges helped bring in turnips today and they were here for dinner. They brought in 16 loads.
