

Ther.

SAT. JAN. 1, 1898

Wea.

This is the first day of another year, how thankful we should be for the many blessings we have received during the past year. I shall strive to do my duty looking for strength from above, I was very busy today. I baked and scribbled,

2 Ther.

SUNDAY 2

Wea.

The first Sabbath of the year found me at Church, where I love to be, for there we hear the good news, and gather new strength for the duties of the week. George and S. A. and Elmer and George Jr and I went. It was a cold day. Mr Nixon preached.