

April 8th. Breakfast 85¢ Gas + oil storage $2.52. off at 8:15 a.m. dull & cold a few flakes of snow. 15 miles to the Maryland line. took a snap there of the Potomac River paid 25 cents toll at the bridge between the two states at Williamsport. weather still cloudy & cold. then on to Hagerstown a large place about 25,000 pop. seems to be a very old place. only about 20 miles in Maryland then across into Penn. at 9:25 a.m. every thing more substantial. up here buildings. streets & even the horses. least cold day coming to the mountains again. through the small towns of Greencastle, Marion, Lulford Springs, to Chambersburg a larger town stopped a few minutes but some candy and hankies. every body have cold now. then on to Green Village to Shippenburg to Lees Cross Roads. Walnut Bottom Dublin. More Dale. to Carlisle Carlisle. a very nice looking

took snaps of the Carlisle University. one of Luther street. and one of the sign board. on leaving the town still on Highway no 11 then on to Lemoyne. we stayed on the west side of the river. and did not cross and go in to Harrisburg. which is a big railroad & manufacturing city. took two snaps of
