The sky overcast all day with a dull sombre hue, in the evening snow falling from N.E. Nearly a foot of snow on level good sleighing. Wife and I had a cutter drive to town, took tea at my father's home.

WEDNESDAY, 2.

A very stormy day. Snow flying through the air driven by a strong wind being piled high up along the fences. Hauling from stove wood to father's for a year's supply.

THURSDAY, 3.

The storm has increased in violence and temperature is several degrees colder. Wind is W. by S.W. driving the snow into concussion lines in huge banks. Spent the day at home.
