

June, 1928.

6 Wednesday. Rained all day. Walter visited at Noah's all day. Ella was canning rhubarb.

7 Thursday. Fine clear & windy. Walter shipped hogs at Elmira. Ella did the washing and cleaned up the wash house. We spent the evening at Enoch Schneider's.

8 Friday. Threatening. The men were fixing the pasture field fence. Ella was canning rhubarb and pineapples. Walter and Ella went to Elmira with Charlie Miller to practice some male quartette. also went to practice for Children's Day. Mrs. Dill Snyder was buried today.

9 Saturday. Changeable weather. Turned very cold & windy this p.m. The men finished the fence and put the cattle out. Vernon was rolling this afternoon. Walter & Ella made a trip up to Drayton. We all went up to Jim Weaver's tonight and spent the evening there.
