

June 1889

cloth on the same day 95<sup>cts</sup> per yd = 189.1 yd
cotton 80. 1 spool thread 5

22 Pat. at Will's sugar 50<sup>cts</sup> tea 50<sup>cts</sup> Patients feel pretty well 1

23 Fine day. Grand procession. lots of people in church

24 Another fine day. The wounded went home after dinner. Dr<sup>r</sup> Fuller paid 1 month's rent 6<sup>00</sup>

25 Pat 13. lb ham 15<sup>cts</sup> for lb - 195 - 12 lb beef 86

The men to press the hay came this evening.

26 Rained all day. got 3 lb dried apples at Will's 30

27 Rained some today or rather last night.

The men pressed 4 $\frac{1}{4}$  tons yesterday & 6 $\frac{3}{4}$  tons

today. Ran got his pants cut by Fab. cost

20<sup>cts</sup> Nuns have a concert tonight.

Marion is improving slowly

28 Finished hay today. Jimmie went after 4 P.M.

with the team as far as John Burns

Far was at home for a while and went off again to go to Fort Coompton.

Sold 3 bush putw. 35<sup>cts</sup> per bush. All the press

hay was 15. <sup>tons</sup> 3/4 = at 150

29. Very hot today I hoed one square in garden

Jimmie wonned buckwheat. Ran went to Alexander to play lacrosse. Pa got 1 chest of 20 lbs of tea from Will's 5.75<sup>cts</sup>. Got 6 lb beef steak 48<sup>cts</sup>

Cousin Dan was here today and gave me

over two qts strawberries

30 It was late when the Lacrosse team came home last night and they were but three strong. Alexander put on some of them at twelve. This has been another hot day

a very large congregation at Green's church

It was Mr Watson's communion Sabbath.

F.D. McLENNAN COLL. B-5 CHRISTINA McLENNAN DIARIES - MAR. 1888 - DEC. 1893 MU 7902