

o'clock and staid till three.
Had a good visit. Rained in the morning but cleared off beautifully.

Wednesday 15th. Snowed in the morning. Fixed an under skirt, cut carpet rags, knit, and did my chores. It was bad walking and Jane stopped after school and staid all night. Churned and had $1\frac{1}{2}$ lbs butter.

Thursday 16th. Froze in the morning and Francis being to the back place plowing, he and I went up to Joseph Edmunds and took dinner. Fried cakes after coming home and did up my chores. Eddie Clint here in the evening. A beautiful day.

Friday 15th. Went over to Aunt Asabel's in the morning to see if our mail had been brought over, and brought over her pail and sent her some milk. Mrs Sutton came up between nine and ten o'clock and staid till near four. Had a very good visit. Baking and knitting. A pleasant day.

Saturday 16th. Just as I got my mornings work done. John Wood came from Smiths Falls for butter. He got $4\frac{1}{2}$ lbs. staid to dinner and I went home with him. A beautiful afternoon.

Towards evening Miss Legnch and I walked down street and bought three yards red flannel at 40^{cts} per yard.
Spent the evening at John's.

Sunday 17th. Went to class in the morning and remained to preacheing; went to Mr Morehones to dinner and staid till after four o'clock;
