

March, 1925.

17 Tuesday. Fine day. We killed two pigs for Grandpa Maurer today and Grandpa was here for dinner. Heard the song sparrows today.

18 Wednesday. Mild day. Walter butchered 3 pigs at Welbert Bender's today. Tornado in Indiana Illinois and Missouri today. Hundreds of people killed and thousands injured.

19 Thursday. Rained hard last night. Turned cold and very windy this morning. Ella went to Elmira with Walter and they had their dinner at Art. Kluck's. The roads are fierce in places.

20 Friday. Fine day. Walter called at Temple's and King's this morning and picked over the potatoes this afternoon.

Beginning of spring.

21 Saturday. Changeable. Showers. Walter's father was here for dinner. Other callers - Earl Miller, Otto & Laura Miller.
