

James Cameron Islands 1902
A fortunate day working at the Barn set fire to the front in the night very bad with the very fine day ploughing the it out in front of the old house at the well rows all in where the black D. went to the Sower Point very Renshaw here for chicken as Lily is very poorly plough up boards sticks and rubbish to boys crossed to Sower Point a letter from Mr. John D. Blair an old friend and schoolmate of the Williamstown School brought by Alexander Mr. Seed a good teacher and a large number of scholars in the main is going on his 83rd year and writes a splendid note for a man of that age right and good as ever and a fine friend to his Maker and his neighbour fine day ploughing a very good cross took eggs 2 girls crossed bought garden seeds a fine cross bought garden seeds

Just 8 years to day since B. D. Blair left here to go to British Columbia St. Agathanes day very fine working at the soap the Hamilton went down Alexandra went up a tug went down ploughing soap harrowing found a pipe sawed some in the garden 3rd fortunate day some rain Fernandez crossed Spunk McLean Gordon Fernandez went to Fort Hovington to night bought came home about 2 o'clock the steam ship the Return went up this morning Sunday Spunk and John G. here rained some an Indian passed here digging close to the shore

Seander and Gordon crossed to night the foggy cloudy Fernandez crossed writing a letter to someone sent notches for the soap one for Bill
