

June

Monday, 1

(153—213)

1908

It was nice and cool. Ada and I went to Winchester and got some seed corn. Uncle Benbin sheared the sheep 1918.1 It was quite a warm day we had quite a lot of company. Fred & Laura was both home. George Walter was out. Later was here 1919.2 It was very warm. Fred & Marnie Fred went back to Ottawa. I crossed. Daisy went to Ligonville.

Tuesday, 2

(154—212)

It was nice. I sowed the field out in the front and rolled it. Steven came back from Ligonville 1918.3 It was very hot. I finished spreading what that was in the field.

Wednesday, 3

(155—211)

It was quite a nice day. Steve and I went to the fair and sold the horses. 1918.4 It was very hot quite a few horses dropped with the heat.