

Tuesday April 26, 1921.

I delivered mail on the whole route with Dick and Charlie's Gips.

Where the roads are scraped they are good; the others are rough.

The day was warm and very fine. Miss Glen and all the others went to a church social at the 11th.

Wednesday Apr 27, 1921

I delivered mail on the whole route.

In the evening they all went to Church Social at the 11th.

Miss Glen went with them.

As I was late getting home from the mail I stayed at home.

The day was fine.
