after I got there and said to bring her down so Frank and Dill went right down with her. Dick was very apologetic and told Dad. he wouldn't have blamed him if he had sold her. he thought that Dad knew he didn't want the cow on Saturday. He is a great old bluffer.
Frank went down to the Women's Institute dance to night.

Saturday April 26th

The ground was covered with snow this morning nearly as much as was on the ground any time this winter. It turned sunny and soon melted off and is milder to night. We hauled over the load of hay we put on yesterday to the horse stable this morning and this afternoon we started to put on another load for the cows but Sam came down and wanted to have a horse clipped so we didn't get it over. I went over to Supper's early and did the chores and got down to meet the 8.15 train which is due at 7.15 by our time. Mary came back to night.

Sunday April 27th

Frank and I went down to Sunday school and church this morning and I stayed down at Auntie's to dinner.

This afternoon Mary and I went up to Huber's for a while as Mary wanted to take Lila some maple sugar she brought from home. Lila was feeling much better. We went from there to Miss Martin's and I left Mary there to have tea. I came home changed my clothes and rode over to Supper's to do the chore. Supper was feeling much better and came out to the barn for a while but got severely reprimanded by the nurse for doing it. She told him he was a "bad naughty man". His improved health is making him wayward. The nurse let him out for an hour this morning to visit with Willies Pyers and he and Abilber got on the sunny side of the straw stack and he stayed out nearly all morning. I went back to Miss Martin's after tea as I couldn't get down before church was out. Enah and Sid went for a drive with me, in this afternoon. Sunny, cool breeze.

Monday April 28th

Frank and I took a quirt to the mill this morning and went from there down to the lake and got part of a load of sand and some plaster to plaster the ceiling in the spare room. We also got a barrel of salt. Sam Thompson came in after dinner with Hugh A. Scott. who came to
