

May, 1927.

29 Sunday. Cloudy. Cold east wind. We went to church & P. School this afternoon. Our company for tea - Mr. & Mrs. Otto Miller and Norman. Otto took us all for a ride in his new McLaughlin.

30 Monday. Changeable. The new plowed and worked up the mangel ground. Ella hoed in the garden and planted corn, beans, muskmelons, pumpkins, sunflowers, hollyhocks, annual chrysanthemums, columbines, carterbury bells and four'o'clocks.

31 Tuesday. Cold, windy & drizzly. Walter sowed the mangels today. Ella worked in the garden and planted beets, radishes, cucumbers, watermelons and soup beans also calendula and dwarf hollyhocks. Grandpa Krauter came here tonight. Vernon plowed this p.m.