

July, 1928

9 Monday. Sultry. Thunderstorm and rain this afternoon. Our Sunday school had their picnic in Schwandt this afternoon. When it rained we moved the booth, etc. over to the church. Tonight was the last jubilee service. Rev. J. P. Hauch gave a short history of the Evangelical church and Rev. E. Bern gave a lecture on "Jubilee" also sang a Swiss yodeling song. Kitchener Calvary church choir furnished the music.

10 Tuesday. Fair. Walter went to Elmira to return the soft drinks, etc. that were left from the picnic. This afternoon he was mowing sweet clover. Vernon helped Ella do the washing.

11 Wednesday. Fine day. The men were hoeing mangels this morning. This p.m. Vernon was cultivating and Walter cut some more sweet clover. Ella picked some berries this afternoon.
