

Dec 26th 1862

St. Ann's Haven Island
Looking for the Fox cutting stove wood took in the fork to cut 27th got a skin cant find the Fox went to head of the 2 men fishing 28th salted the pork Ven making a pack 28th Sunday seen 2 men fishing 28th at church the Fox not de yet I seen his tracks this morning 6 traps I got set out now, for the Owl on the stone heap and the rest for Mink very fine weather these few days past 25th Drawing Drags cutting stove wood Drops of Rain broke the Iron on the of the Whipp tree 30th went to the head of the Island chopping stove wood setting fires to the March but it dont very well freeze some last night a fine Day to Day East Wind circle around the Moon and the East Wind a raising not much ice around the shore red the Stoves no snow on the ground 31st Last Day of the year Humming near Bushel of Wheat Feeding all the Cattle well chopping stove wood A fine Day set up till near 10 o'clock firing away the old year and firing in the New year washed my feet cleared my firing with the Pistol