

Sermon was on "Co-operation". The night-one on "New Ways of Service".
God does not stand still. Things that were right in ages past are not right now. "Move on". In older days the duties of a Canadian home were few.
No newspapers - no cables. If a farmer in India had our responsibility as he knew nothing of it.
The Romance of being able to send a party ourselves (heart - journey etc.)
in a flash to the end of the world - (Journey by cable etc.) Greatest Romance in the world - greater than any novel. Charlie, Alice and Margaret came up after church.

Monday Did some short-hand. Read Preface to Feb. 1st: "Albert - 4th Earl Grey" by Harold Begbie.
Typed some pieces from book of Mrs.
Tues. called at Tues's to return book & say good-bye as they are going to London to-morrow - until Friday night.
Went to office and did entries and called at Mrs. Ferguson's for "The Street"
