

October

THURSDAY 22

1874

A severe frost - last night - the face of nature was hoary for nearly an hour after bright sunrise. At the plowing with both teams. Brought in the garden stock of beets, only a small lot. Had a visit - this evening from Mr. G. A. Golding.

FRIDAY 23

At same work as yesterday. At noon hour we docked and assorted the ewe lambs and sold 2 aged ewes to Mr. McCollum @ $7.00. Bought of him a hind quarter of beef @ $6.00. At Brampton tonight - to Choir Practice a rather small turnout. Bought at Bannister's a set of parlor croquet ^{for $1.50} a photo. album @ $1.75.

October

SATURDAY 24

1874

Still at the plowing, the ground works better on the knolls than in lower parts of field. Sold to Mr. Samuel Huxley, 3 breeding ewes of 4 or 5 years of age. Father went to Brampton today to attend auction sales of real estate, also received from C. P. A. Society the prize money $2.00 on sheep. Mailed yesterday to Markham to Bell Foundry the sum of $10.00.

SUNDAY 25

Drove to S. School at 10 A.M. Supt. & Sec. abs. Lesson Mark ~~X~~ 46 to 52 "Healing the blind man Bartimaeus" Mr. N. V. Watson addressed the school. Spent afternoon at writing up S. S. Class books and at music. Heard Mr. Thos. Holby preach in Brampton, text, John ~~XVI~~ 31st. A warm pleasant day as fine as summer.