

October

THURSDAY, 16

(289-76)

1919

Unloaded corn. Da levelled clay along by ditch then ploughing in field next Jack. Brock cleaning pens and splooughing until about five then at Watts threshing.

I to town in morning for gasoline.

Showerly early, then a heavy wet mist about noon.
Dull and raw.

Brock to town at night.

FRIDAY, 17

(290-75)

Brock at Watts threshing until about 3 P. M.
Da ploughing in forenoon and drawing in corn in afternoon.

Fine bright day.

XSATURDAY, 18

(291-74)

Drawing in corn. Brock helping until noon then at Elving threshing on Bell farm.
We to town at night.

Fine but cool.

SUNDAY, 19

(292-73)

Brock to church at night-

Rather dull but a nice evening.