

Sept. 19.

Wednesday 19.

Cold and windy. Raining tonight. Mr. and Mrs. Phelps were over for tea. Mand stayed at Mrs. Kilpatrick's last night. She came home this morning and she and Mother went to town. Then Mand took honey out tonight. Mrs. Sinclair and Mrs. <sup>Mr.</sup> Eugene Davis were out this afternoon. Canned tomatoes.

Sept. 20

Thursday 20.

Lovely, cold, windy day. Rained all night and nearly all day. Margaret came home with Mand tonight. Mrs. Davis came down for some pears. Jessie Merchant came out for pears tonight. We canned plums. Made me a new nightgown.

Sept. 21.

Friday 21.

Very windy and quite cool. Rained some tonight. Mand has gone home with Margaret tonight. The Rawleigh man was here. Dad threshed at Uncle Lewis.