

Ther.

SAT. JAN. 29, 1898

Wea.

I rose this morning and made a fire. I then attended to the bread. I baked bread and pies and cakes, and swept and dusted. I was kept quite busy. I did not scrub as I had rather much work on hand and I feel weak after my sick spell.

Ther.

SUNDAY 30

Wea.

This is a very cold day. Temperature 22 Degrees below zero. George, J. A. and I went to Church. It was too cold for the boys to go. Mr Nixon preached. his text was Jer VIII and 22. We saw Allie Nicholl at Church.