

Ther.

FRI. AUG. 19, 1898

Wea.

I got up this morning and made the fire, and did some baking in forenoon, after dinner I cut out a pair of pants for George, and sewed some of them, Phemia came down in afternoon and stayed for tea. I went up with her for a little while, I set bread

Ther.

SATURDAY 20

Wea.

I rose and made the fire, and then attended to the bread, I baked bread and buns in the forenoon and after dinner I swept and dusted and scrubbed, we covered some books for the boys Lillie McLean called for a little while