

Have been bail-
ing down in the woods today, and Jim
has been helping me.

It has been a very good-lap
day as well
so that our stock of sap
has not decreased so very much, after all.

Had Mr. Watts
and family
here to dinner with his eldest daughter Emma.
Could not spend
much time
with them however, from my work.

We gathered again. This for more, but, over to high East we thought best postpone the visiting down process, until better weather.

Have been waiting at the w
cutting & splitting ~~the~~ most of the
since.

E. H. Leeman
came just before noon, to see me about the concerning Spring deliveries at Lincoln and
Ford House.

It seems that are required for
