

August, 1929.

9 Friday. Fine day. Hot.
Maurer's threshed their wheat today and finished around 1.30 p.m.

These men were here - Frank Fairweather, Noah Miller, Enoch
Schneider, Eph Snyder, Walter
Adler and Jack Mullin. Charles Miller was plowing on Noah's old farm and was here for dinner.

Mervyn Smith brought Edna and her family up here tonight and Margaret and Ewendolyn
Baker are staying for a few days.

10 Saturday. Warm day.

Walter started cutting grain in the field beside the lane and Vernon stoked.

11 Sunday. Hot and sultry.

Cooler tonight. We went to church and S. School this morning. Walter Adler was here for dinner ^{and tea} and Bert came over for tea. Walter took Margaret & Gwen to Elmira this afternoon. Walter & Vernon went to League tonight.
