

July, 1931

1 Wednesday. Another scorching hot day. The men were hoeing corn. Harvey Reist spent the evening here.

2 Thursday. Very sultry & hot. Thunderstorms with strong winds and heavy rain this afternoon. The men were hoeing corn. Henry Reist and Laidwell Bolender visited the men tonight.

3 Friday. Somewhat cooler. Walter took a load of chopping to Floradale and had his dinner at Ezra Maurer's. The boys pulled mustard this afternoon. We all went up to Jim Weaver's tonight and spent the evening there.

4 Saturday. Fine day. Vernon helped to cut feed at Enoch Schneider's this forenoon and Walter cut the sweet clover this afternoon. They were hoeing corn the rest of the time. Vernon went to Elmira tonight with Dr. Schneider.
