

as mine but when he looked at the clips he said they were different so he put me of theirs and it was about twice as long so we decided that the ones I had were not meant for steel posts at all but for putting on wooden pickets. I went down town and changed them for the proper kind. I went down to Auntys they gave me some grated horse radish and some holly-hock roots which I set out when I got home. I went over to the Lampkins to-night as they got some groceries that I ordered the other day at Cecils and then I got to bed. I asked them to get them for me before I knew that I would have to go down. East wind this morning changing to west after the rain. Not cold.

Sunday April 25th

It was drizzling this morning, but it did not last long but it has been cloudy, cold and windy all day. We spent the day sleeping, reading and doing chores. No one came in or left the place, nothing happened.

Monday April 26th

We all went to town this morning and as we got a good early start and got down about two o'clock

Mary got every thing she needed before dinner and we came home soon after dinner. Mary went up to the Bagleys and to see Glad. Lane. I worked at my fence after we got home but didn't quite finish. Mahel came over for tea and to stay all night so to-night I walked down to hand practice. The walking was good across the fields. Connie Knick took the ladder ship but said he hoped we could get a local man soon to take hold of it. Frank was down at the hall practicing for one of his plays and we walked home together. We stopped in at Auntys where we found Quint and Huby, they having just finished a game of bridge. Huby said when we went in, "Why, she let you out early to-night, Frank," and Frank not noticing this said "Yes, we didn't go through the third act", which reply provoked great mirth. It was cloudy and a very cold wind all day but cleared off towards evening & was a fine night but freezing quite hard. It froze hard last night.

Tuesday April 27th

I finished fixing the fence across the flats & creek this morning. Harry B. was down with me having a whale of a time throwing sticks in the water. I let the cows
