

Monday February 21, 1921.

I delivered mail on the whole route with Queen and Dick. Roy went to Chatham to help Mr. English to load up Charlie's stuff that he is going to leave here. Mr. English said that repairing the harness cost twenty dollars ($20.00). The day was fine and the roads are good.

Tuesday February 22, 1921.

I delivered mail on the Bay and Townline, and while at the Bay I got Jack McQueen to put the hind shoes on Queen and Dick. Roy delivered on the Club part. Paid for shoes $2.40, 2 love birds - $2.66. The day was fine and the roads were good but it looks like rain this evening.

Wednesday Feb. 23/21

I delivered mail on the whole route with Queen and Dick.

Bob - salt, Coffee, meat, bugs and C. & C. $2.25

Roy did chores about the house.

It snowed some last night.

The day was fine and cold and the roads are good.
