

never would fail. The gray haired mother stroked her daughter's head and I feared I could trace just a tear in her kind face as she placed her daughter's hand in mine and said.

Stanzas!

She was bred in old Kentucky
 Where the meadow grass is blue
 See the sunshine ^{of the country} in her face and manner too.

She was bred in old Kentucky
 Take her boy you're mighty lucky
 When you marry a girl like Sue.

(2) Many years have passed away
 Since that well remembered day.
 When to that dear old Kentucky home
 I came and the happiness of my life
 Was my sweetheart friend and wife.
 For the sunshine in her heart remained the same.
 I am sitting alone in a place we have long call home.

For yesterday my darling passed away
 Though in tear of joy I think of that day when but a boy, that I took her hand and heard his mother say.

" " " "

Barney McCoy, or come to my arms Nora darling,

I am going far away Nora darling
 And leaving such an angel behind
 It will break my heart into which I fondly give to you, and no other one so loving kind and true

(Chorus)

Then come to my arms Nora darling
 Bid your friends and dear old Ireland goodbye
 And its happy we will be in that dear land of the free Living happy with your Barney McCoy.

 I would go with you Barney darling
 But the reason why I told you oft before
 It would break my mother's heart
 If from her I had to part
 And go roaming with you Barney McCoy.

(3)
 I am going far away Nora darling
 Just as sure as there a God that I adore. But remember what I say that until the judgement day you will never see your Barney McCoy.

(4)
 I would go with you Barney darling
 If my mother and the rest of them were there for I know we would be best in that dear land of the west.
 Living happy with you Barney McCoy.

(5)
 I am going far away Nora darling
 And the ship is now at anchor in the bay and before the morn

sun, you will hear the signal gun
 So be ready, it will carry us away.

The little girl that played upon my knee.

1 Long years have passed and gone.
 Since I left this dear old happy home
 I left an aged Father and Mother dear for to roam accross the deep blue sea.

(Chorus)

I am homeward bound, to the the one I love so dear no more for to roam accross the sea. I am going home to my dear old happy home and the little girl the played upon my knee

(2) And fortune smiles upon me for awhile into poverty chains set me free who would not give to me all the comforts that I find in the little girl that played upon my knee!

(3) Oh Jennie do you remember how can you forget those happy hours To me how she sighs, when she thinks of the days gone by she's the little girl that played upon
 my knee.

(4) What means that long dark funeral train sad faces they all seem to be and in the hearse lies the form of the only one I love she's

the little girl that played upon
my knee.

(5) And now she's dead and gone to rest and in the cold day her beautiful form lies.

How I wish that I was lying by her side. she's the little girl that played upon my knee.

Whom

Don't tell her that you love her
Don't say what you will do.

Don't promise that you'll wed her just because she's fond of you

Don't tell her of the future years, and all that you will do ^{through}

For her sake do not tell her this man kind is seldom true.

(1) Don't tell her that you love her.

A youth was on his way to see his sweetheart fond and true.

While passing through the old home gate
he heard a gentle voice.

He turned to greet his best friend mother dear.

You're going to see your sweetheart now be careful what you say

Don't break her heart because she's fond of you

Don't tell her that you love her if you don't remember. Tom that one man out of ten is seldom true.

Don't tell her that she's all to you on earth unless it's true.

don't tell her how you both will happily be.

Don't whisper tales of endless bliss because her heart is yours

Remember I was once a girl like she Don't break her heart because she loves you.

If you do twill all come back to you in future years.

Prosperity is one thing had in life you'll seldom find its moving hand in hand with sighs and tears.

The Telephone Girl.

The telephone girl sits still in her chair
And listens to voices from everywhere.

She hears all the gossip, she learns all the news

She knows who is happy and who has the blues;

She knows all our sorrows, she knows all our joys,

She knows every girl who is chasing the boys

She knows of our troubles, she knows of our strife,

She knows every man who talks mean to his wife;

She knows every time we are out with "the boys"
She hears the crows each fellow employs;
She knows every woman who has a dark part.
She knows every man who's inclined to be "fast";
In fact - there's a secret beneath each sunny curl,
Of that quiet, demure looking telephone girl.
If the telephone girl told us all that she knows
It would turn half our friends into bitterest foes;
She could sow a small wind that would be a gale,
Engulf us in trouble and land us in jail,

She could let go a story which, gaining in force
 Would cause half our wives to sue for divorce;

She could get all our churches braced up in a fight
 And turn all our days into sorrowing night;

In fact she could keep the whole town in a stew

If she'd tell a tenth part of the things that she knew.

Oh, brother, now doesn't it make your head whirl

When you think what you owe to the telephone girl.

I wrote this to-day Dec. 4. 1909.
