

June, 1930.

25 Wednesday. Warm summery day
Ella hoed in the garden all day.

The men were cutting thistles.
Opha Miller visited Ella this afternoon.

26 Thursday. Showery. The men were cleaning wheat. Mr. & Mrs. Enoch Schneider spent the evening here.

Callers - Elmer, John, Clayton & George Miller, Jake Stahlbaum.

27 Friday. Fair. Walter went to Elmira this morning and entertained callers this afternoon - Jacob Good, Homer Henderson and Willard Schwartz.
They helped to put in Enoch's hydro poles after supper.

28 Saturday. Fine day. The men got the hydro poles in Earl's swamp this morning and dug the holes this afternoon. Emerson Trauter and Milton Kuch of Heidelberg came up here and got a plow and manure spreader and were here for dinner.
