

July, 1929.

22 Monday. Fair and hot.

Walter cut some more grass this morning. The men had some bad luck with ropes breaking, etc. but they managed to bring in 7 loads of hay. Noah, Esther & Ruth Miller were hoeing turnips here this afternoon. Saw Horst helped this p.m. with the hay. Enoch Schneider had a cattle beast break its neck so Walter went up and skinned & dressed it and Irvin helped bring in a few loads here. Dad Schneider was very ill today. Mr. & Mrs. Louis Miller called here tonight.

23 Tuesday. Hot day. Walter cut the rest of the hay this morning and they brought in 8 loads today. Saw Horst helped this afternoon. Ella went berry picking in Reisto's brush this p.m. Schweindt's brought a cattle beast here from the brush with a wire tight around its front leg and Walter ^{killed &} dressed it.
