

September

Saturday August 16th

Stayed in bed this morning till about half past eight as usual, not very well. I lay around all morning reading "The Millionaire Baby". Dick went down town and made a dollar peddling git bills, Daddy went back and shovelled ditches. This afternoon Dick, Lerdie and Lissy went back shooting with the old gun and a rifle but they did not shoot anybody, strange to say. Daddy and Cuck went down to Mr. Skyp's funeral. One of us ought to be gone, even to Oannister's to thrash this afternoon but under the circumstances could not. Mr. Highland was here again to buy the blue pressed and offered Dad. fifty five dollars. He said he would come again on Monday. Warm and nice day.

Had your tea together to discuss. They are some just as we got through with a great supply of berries. This has been the case with which they have been up. I have picked up a box and sent it to my mother but I have not had time to do so yet. I have been very busy.

Sunday September 4th

Went to church. It was St. Williams this morning and Dick went to church and Sunday school and stayed all day till about 10 o'clock. I took a dose of salts this morning. The first I have ever taken I think. I stayed home from school once a long time ago to take one but got out of it after nine o'clock. I read and drew pictures most of the day, doing the chores by degrees. Mr. Lankner was over to borrow the double harness, but as Dad had it with him he said it did not matter. It is the first time Dad has used it for a month or two. Charlie Ferris and the two Quahberres came through from the Lang. They had been taking berries. Tige and I had a very enjoyable day. Late with dinner or lunch I wanted down. After as I came to it, and Dick and I