

May 3, 1921

I delivered mail with Dick and Charles Gip.

Roy went to Painscourt to help Charlie to repair the Auto.

The day was very fine but rather cold and the roads were good.

Tuesday May 4, 1921.

I delivered mail on all the route with Dick and Gip.

Mr English finished drilling in some holes on ground that was to wet when the other ones were put in.

The day was very fine and the roads are good.

Thursday May 5, 1921.

I delivered mail on all the route with Dick and Gip.

Charlie and Roy came here in the evening and Charlie stayed all night.

The day was fine and the roads are good.