Wednesday 10.

A wonderful day. Mrs. Williams came down after dinner. I was sick in bed all day with my heart. Charlie Marchant was out in the morning and brought Mother a bee feeder.

Thursday 11.

One of the nicest days this Fall. Real hot about noon. Mr. Putnam came after Dad, and then Eugene and all went to the plowing match. Mother and I did all the chores then went out for Dad. Maud had the serum in her arm again.
