

May, 1925

10 Sunday. Fine day. Some good showers this evening. The Floradale Sunday school visited Woolwich this morning where the mothers rendered the programme. This afternoon the Woolwichers went to Floradale Sunday school and we enjoyed the day very much. We went to Ezra Maurer's for tea.

This evening one of Martin Bouman's girls at Floradale got two fingers and the thumb of her right hand shot off playing with a dynamite cap. Anon Elvys car was stolen tonight. One of Israel Musselman's boys was buried today.

11 Monday. Clear and fine. Cold wind blowing. Walter was drawing manure and Aubrey was working up the root ground.

12 Tuesday. Fine day. Ella did her washing. Aubrey was plowing and Walter was drawing manure. Walter went to a Finance Meeting at the church tonight.