

February, 1929.

25 Monday. Cold with east wind. Ella did her washing and ironing. Walter went to Alma with grist this morning and to the sale of John Wagner's property this afternoon. Sol. Bender bought it for $1800. We went to church tonight where Rev. Storey showed his lantern slides of South America.

26 Tuesday. Mild and dreary with showers. Archie Peterson visited Walter this morning. Ella was at a quilting at Enoch's and had a fine time.

27 Wednesday. Cloudy and windy. Walter went to Owal Snyder's sale with Edmund Schwandt and Ella spent the day at Schwandt's. Vernon came down for supper too and we played crokinole tonight.

28 Thursday. Fine day. Walter made a trip over to Salem and got 2 old horses. Vernon was drawing wood from the bush.
