

January, 1930.

21 Tuesday. Another fine day. Some snowflurries. Vernon was drawing wood home from the bush. Walter's callers were - Joe Hall, George Koepke and Sam. Umbach.

This morning we heard the address of King George and the delegates to the Disarmament Conference broadcasted from London, England.

22 Wednesday. Beautiful morning. Very cold. Rather stormy this p.m. Walter butchered a pig here for Joe Hall today. Vernon was drawing wood home this afternoon. Ella visited Mrs. Sam Horst this afternoon.

23 Thursday. Cold & stormy. Vernon finished the wood this morning and Walter took some meat to Alma. This afternoon they both went to Elmira in the sleigh.

24 Friday. Cold & somewhat stormy. The men were bagging chop & trimming turkeys. Walter & Ella were at Noah Miller's for tea and Emerson Sturge spent the evening here.
