

February

SATURDAY 28

1874

Got home this morning at 1 o'clock, tired and sleepy. Aunt Jennie Rice packed up all her things and went by train to Oshawa to take up her permanent residence there - Spent the day at R Smith's wood-sawing mill. Something uncommon happened here yesterday in the shape of twin calves from "Blossom"

March

MONDAY 2

1874

Was splitting firewood and piling it in the wood house for next-summer's use. The Township Assessor Mr Watson was here today, we are assessed at $50.50 for whole property. Spent evening at Temple, one initiated some good readings.

TUESDAY 3

March

SUNDAY 1

1874

A-S. School this forenoon kept and see pres. Lesson Exodus XIV, 19 to 31. "Israelites crossing the Red sea". Heard Rev John Gardiner Scott preach in Brampton tonight. Text: Job XIV, 14th verse. A funeral sermon on the death of a young lady. A beautiful warm day the roads quite muddy.

Was helping J Learment to cut in the bush with the cross cut-saw, some maple trees. Regular spring weather snow nearly all gone, raining in showers, and the mud on the Centre Road six inches deep.