

Sunday, March 22

1898

- Jan 1st Spent the day at home as Edith was not well.
 - - - Opened the silo and tried the new feed carrier which worked fine.
- 2nd Went to Will Ronald's for Massey Harris Seed Drill which I bought at his sale for $16.00. Had dinner at Forbes.
 - - - Went to Inveres at Blue Lake for tea and the evening.
- 3rd Dan Forbes came down to help and we drew loads of straw up to the pig-pen. Went to Prayer Meeting at Johnsons in the evening.
- 4th Started to draw out manure.
- 5 - Went to Bramford to see about Exemption of D. Forbes.
- 9 - Went to Johnsons for tea and to spend the Evening.
- 10 - Congregational Meeting at St. George in the Evening.
- 11 - Drew a load of hay to stable at Conant works.
- 12 & 13 Two very stormy days, so stormy that the trains were all blocked for several days as well as the roads. The wind blew so hard that the snow blew through the cracks of the buildings until every thing was white.
- 17 - Fred Currie and his wife and Baby Jean came down from Galt for a few days. being home on a visit from Alberta.
- 18 - Went to Aunt Bessie McDraus funeral from Kildes Bethel where they brought her from Rochester, where she had died at Freds of Apoplexy.
- 19 - Bob's Maggie Within came down for the evening.
- 20 - Took Fred Currie & family to Paris station (P. & O.) on their way to ^{St. Albans}
- 21 - Went to Patriotic Service in Methodist Church St. Georges.