

July 15th 1901

Monday. Fine & very hot x I went to Corby's with Mares. neither were in season thus went to hunt for help in hay. W. Kelso came in afternoon and I expect him right along.

Tuesday 16th fine
W. K. here all day he & C hoed turnips in morning and ruffled. I cut clover in morning and we hauled a load of raskings in afternoon thus went to work in farm till evening we had a good shower.

Wednesday 17th fine we hauled four loads of hay and piled all that was cut. W. K. here all day

Thursday 18th fine
we hauled in two loads of timothy & a even of clover W. K. away today

Friday 19th fine we finished cutting this seasons hay & started hauling. twelve loads
W. K. here today.

Saturday 20th fine we finished hauling hay today three loads & started to cut fall wheat. went to town bgt. meat. 78¢

Sunday 21st fine Father, Mary & Children went to Church in morning and we went to W. K.
Ford's funeral in afternoon & mother J. D. to Church in evening

Monday 22nd fine we put in overlays for granery & jacked up overlays in implement shed had two jacks two hrs. W. Quirk here 1/2 day we cut wheat in afternoon and hoed turnips