

July 3rd Very cold night 6 to 10 below zero they say clear this afternoon but cloudy this afternoon snowing hard tonight showed Ken's car its aldershat would not start

July 4th must be about 6 inches snow this morning. weather clear & bright - not so cold
got a nail in my tire at Filmans Curd the children had to walk to Sunday School.

July 5th Cold again
this morning about
zero

July 6 Decidedly cold this morning the baker said it was 14 below zero. Having a real winter this year

July 8th extremely cold today. Some where between 25 and 30.
below zero. Coldest day in Hamilton in 20 years. Toronto reports 21 below officially
and outside of the city as low as 30 + 34 below at New Market + 35 at Dundas. and they say it will be colder tonight 14 below this afternoon the average for Toronto for the 24 hours was 17 below zero the coldest in history I guess.

July 9th Some time
starting the car this am too drunk them to school. colder than ever this morning. the fellow at
