A Veritable Prop.

To revive, restore and reconstruct one should preferably begin at the foundation. In almost every case of systemic depletion the blood is "below par." There is no quicker and more satisfactory way of starting up the reparative process than by means of Pepto-Mangan (Gude). This palatable and tolerable combination of iron and manganese in organic form is a veritable "prop" to the functionally disturbed blood.

Weather A lovely warm day.
Temp.
 John left some of the Corps out to night. Eugene's was over for dinner. Aleta & Melba took baby & went over to Belarances a little while. Mr. Boy & Mrs. Boy was over a few minutes to night. Sheel was up this evening. Maurice is out at Maude McLeary. Baby John has two under belly can climb up by a chair & stand. Eugene had Father Duncie's old prince. I tried to milk the <sup>one</sup> <sub>clarky</sub> heifers she cleaned
